

BECKER
JOEST
VOLK
VERLAG

www.bjv-books.com

Becker Joest Volk Verlag
Bahnhofsallee 5
40721 Hilden
Germany

Tel +49 2103 90788-15
Fax +49 2103 90788-28
vm@bjvv.de
www.bjv-books.com

Emanuel Eckardt

WORK

English

240 pages

Large format: 27 x 31 cm (12 x 10 ½ inches)

136 photos, hardcover, cloth bound

ISBN 978-3-95453-009-0

U.S. Retail Price: $49.99

CONTENT

Work changes the world. Work has cultivated the earth and allowed civilizations and societies to develop. Work creates values, ensures our existence, and changes ecological systems, natural landscapes, and the global climate. Work is life.

This book is filled with fascinating pictures taken by internationally acclaimed photographers, showing people at work in the heat of the tropics, in icy storms, in operating rooms, and in the sterile world of laboratories in the future. It shows archaic drudgery and back-breaking jobs that people do to keep themselves and their families alive even though the conditions are miserable. The images show work that without courage, without patience, without experience, or without passion for a cause wouldn't be possible. And sometimes work that wouldn't be done without people's hope for a life in a better world. This book shows pictures that tell a story and touch people's hearts, but also pictures that are unsettling. It shows the daily life of human endeavor and jobs that are still better than being without work. This book invites you to feel amazement and to broaden your horizons.

HIGHLIGHTS

- ★ The perfect gift
- ★ Internationally renowned author

AUTHOR

Emanuel Eckardt

Emanuel Eckardt, born in 1942, studied to be a graphic designer and illustrator, and worked as a freelance caricaturist before he turned to journalism. He has worked as a reporter for the magazine Stern, and as an editor and chief editor for prestigious German journals. Eckardt also received the Egon Erwin Kisch Award for his journalistic work. He now lives and works as an independent author in Hamburg.

EDITOR

Stefan Pielow

Stefan Pielow, born in 1961, began producing articles for major magazines (Stern, Zeit) while he was still at university. Later, he specialized in staged photography. His skill in capturing artificially constructed scenes distinguishes his work today in productions for international magazines and companies.

- ★ Fascinating pictures taken by internationally acclaimed photographers

